Subject: Organization of Walkathon by the Department of Pharmacology in Observance of World Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR) Awareness Week 2026.

CIRCULAR

In connection with the observance of World Antimicrobial Resistance (AMR) Awareness Week 2026 (18–24 November), the Department of Pharmacology, Government Medical College, Anantnag, is organizing a Walkathon to generate awareness and foster a collective institutional commitment towards addressing the escalating global challenge of antimicrobial resistance.

The theme for this year's observance, "One Health, One Action: Prevent AMR Now", underscores the imperative for a coordinated, multisectoral approach, recognizing the intrinsic interconnectedness of human, animal, plant and environmental health in tackling antimicrobial resistance.

In this regard, all Heads of Departments, FA/Chief Accounts Officer, GMC, Anantnag, Administrative Officer, GMC, Anantnag, Medical Superintendent Associated MMABMH, Deputy Medical Superintendent, Associated M&CCH, faculty members and doctors of Government Medical College, Anantnag, are cordially invited to participate in the Walkathon and lend their support to this important public health initiative. Their participation will serve to strengthen institutional awareness, promote professional responsibility and reaffirm our collective resolve to combat the growing threat of antimicrobial resistance.

All concerned are requested to assemble at the designated venue at the scheduled time. However, personnel engaged in emergency and other essential patient-care duties shall stand exempted from participation, in the interest of ensuring uninterrupted delivery of essential healthcare services.

The wholehearted participation of all concerned is solicited to make this initiative a meaningful expression of our shared commitment to safeguarding the effectiveness of antimicrobials and advancing the principles of One Health, One action in alignment with this year's theme.

Date: 18/11/2026.
Time: 10:15 AM
Assembly Point: Near Emergency, Associated MMABMH, Janglaatmandi.
